This shall mean that an employee will have part of their salary packaged as a fringe benefit which does not constitute a direct payment to the employee but is payable to a bona fide third party. - (vii) in the event that the employer ceases to attract exemption from payment of Fringe Benefits Tax, all salary packaging arrangements shall be terminated and individual employees' wages will revert to those specified in table 1 of part B of the Parent Award;
- (viii) notwithstanding any of the above arrangements, the employee may have the opportunity to amend their nominated third party fringe benefit payee by giving one months' notice of change of details in writing to the employer;
- (ix) in the event that the employee ceases to be employed by the employer this agreement will cease to apply as at the date of termination and all leave entitlements due on termination shall be paid at the rates in accordance with the award and/or contractual arrangements. Any outstanding benefit still due under this agreement upon termination shall be paid on or before the date of termination;
- (x) the calculation of entitlements concerning in service paid leave including annual, sick and long service leave, occupational superannuation and annual leave loading will be based on the value of the employee's total wage as outlined in clause 10 and table 1 of part B of the Parent Award;
