3. DECLARATION

This Agreement was not entered into under duress by any party to it.

4. OBJECTIVE OF AGREEMENT

The objectives of this agreement are:

- (a) To enable the company to perform work in the activities covered by this Agreement in a productive and efficient manner;
- (b) To enable employees to work in a productive, efficient, flexible and safe manner in accordance with their full skill and competence to meet the requirements of the company and their clients; and
- (c) To provide appropriate remuneration and conditions of employment for employees working under the terms of the Agreement.

5. RATES OF PAY AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) Employees under this agreement shall generally be required to perform work under the direction of businesses who are clients of the company.
- (b) When performing such work, employees (whether permanent full-time, permanent part-time, or casual) will be paid according to the relevant award, provided that where there is an agreement (registered or unregistered, and whether an enterprise agreement, award modernisation agreement or award) between the client and the union covering the client's own employees, then the provisions of that agreement will also apply to the employee.
- (c) Paragraph (b) cannot operate to allow in any circumstances the total remuneration of the employee to be less than that payable under the provisions of the relevant award.

6. HOURS OF WORK

- (a) The spread of ordinary hours shall be 6.00 am to 6.00 pm;
- (b) A casual employee on each separate engagement can work a maximum of 8 hours ordinary time before the commencement of overtime payments;
- (c) The minimum engagement for casual employees shall be 4 hours.

SAFETY AND

- (a) The employer shall pay an additional amount equivalent to 1% (not be increased while this agreement is in force) of the total payroll for employees covered by this agreement to the Transport Industry Training Education and Industrial Rights Council, being an organisation established for the purpose of promoting vocational training, occupational health and safety training, safer work practices, knowledge of award and other industrial entitlements, and other services for the benefit of workers in the transport industry.
- (b) Prior to the establishment of such an organisation, the funds referred to in paragraph (a) shall be deposited and preserved in an account to be agreed upon by the company and the union.
- (c) TRANSPORT EDUCATION AND TRAINING AUSTRALIA LIMITED T/AS FIRST CHOICE shall be represented on the board of the Transport Industry Training Education and Industrial Rights Council.

8. USE OF CASUAL EMPLOYEES

At each work location of a client of the company, any number of casual employees may be used by the company provided that any provision of the award which applies to the client's own employees which provides for a ratio of permanent full-time employees to casual employees must be complied with in relation to all persons working at that work location.

9. DISPUTES RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

In the event of a question, dispute or difficulty arising at a ~~branch~~ ^{work site}.

- (a) The matter shall first be raised with the local management and agreement sought.
- (b) If the dispute is not resolved at this level, the matter may be discussed between the Union delegate and the local Manager.

- (c) Should the dispute remain unresolved, the matter may be referred to an official of the Union, who shall discuss it with senior management.
- (d) In the event of no agreement being reached at this stage, the dispute will be referred to the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales.
- (e) While the procedure is being followed, normal work will continue.

10. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

It is a term of this Agreement that the union and each of the employees bound by this Agreement will not pursue any extra claims, award or over award for the duration of this Agreement as specified in clause 10 of this Agreement. This includes claims relating to changes that are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. It is also a term of this Agreement that the union and each of the employees bound by it will not take industrial action in support of extra claims, award or overaward for the duration of this Agreement.

11. SUPERANNUATION

All employees shall at the commencement of their employment with the company join the TWU Superannuation Fund. This clause shall be subject to Section 124 of the Industrial Relations Act, 1996. DK
 The company will make contributions to the TWU Superannuation Fund on behalf of their employees as required by the Transport Industry (State) Superannuation Award.

12. AREA, INCIDENCE AND DURATION
