allowance of 60 per cent in addition to the shift allowances in subclauses 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3 of this clause.

- 6.5 A shift worker working on a Sunday early morning, afternoon or night shift as part of their normal work roster shall be paid in addition to the ordinary hourly rate an allowance of 100 per cent which substitutes for the shift allowances in Clauses 6.1., 6.2. and 6.3.
- 6.6 A shift worker whilst working a public holiday early morning, afternoon or night shift as part of their normal work roster shall be paid in addition to the ordinary hourly rate an allowance of 200 per cent which substitutes for the shift allowances in Clauses 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3.
- 6.7 Where shifts commence between 11:00 pm and midnight the time so worked before midnight shall not entitle the employee to any allowances applicable to that day, provided that the time worked between 11:00 pm and midnight is applied to any allowance applicable to the day in which the majority of the shift is worked. Where shifts fall partly on two days, the day the major portion of the shift falls on shall be regarded as that day.
- 6.8 Shift allowances provided in subclauses 6.4, 6.5 and 6.6 of this clause shall not apply to any employee while absent on accrued sick leave. All other shift allowances prescribed by this clause shall apply to any employee absent on accrued sick leave.
- 6.9 Shift allowances shall be payable for absence on annual leave in accordance with clause 16, Annual Leave.

7. Wages

The wages payable from the beginning of the first pay period to commence on or after 1 February 1998 and thereafter are set out in Table 1 - Wages, of Part B, Monetary Rates.

The wages prescribed herein include a consideration for dress and uniform. These wages will be referred to as the ordinary rates.

8. Payment of Wages

- 8.1 Wages will be paid weekly on a day not later than Thursday of each week, for the pay week finishing the previous Sunday.
- 8.2 Payment for all employees shall be via electronic funds transfer to an acceptable financial institution.
- 8.3 Employees shall advise of a financial institution and account number at the time of employment and may nominate a second account for a standard deduction.
- 8.4 Government charges associated with the deposit and one withdrawal by electronic funds transfer shall be paid by the employer.

- 8.5 Where employment is terminated, an employee shall be paid forthwith all ordinary wages due and shall be paid all overtime and other monies due within seven days of the date of the termination of employment.

9. Casual Employees

- 9.1 A casual employee may be employed for not less than four hours each start and not more than ten hours at the ordinary hourly rate which is equivalent to one fortieth of the ordinary weekly rate plus 15 per cent casual loading.
- 9.2 Casual employees shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement with respect to shift allowances, weekend allowances and public holiday allowances in addition to the 15 per cent casual loading.
- 9.3 In accordance with the Annual Holidays Act 1944, casuals will receive one-twelfth of their ordinary hourly rate in lieu of annual leave.

10. Part Time Employees

- 10.1 Part-time employees shall be paid an ordinary hourly rate which is equivalent to one fortieth of the ordinary weekly rate. The provisions of this Agreement with respect to sick leave, annual leave, bereavement leave and holidays shall apply on a pro rata basis.
- 10.2 A part-time employee may be offered on a voluntary basis extra hours which are in addition to the employee's rostered hours. Provided that such additional hours shall be offered:
- (i) in conjunction with an existing shift or on a non-rostered day and not in excess of daily or weekly maximum hours elsewhere provided in this Agreement without the payment of overtime.
 - (ii) in accordance with the relevant rostering principles.
- 10.3 The provisions of this Agreement with respect to shift allowances, weekend allowances, public holiday allowances and overtime shall apply as for full-time employees.

11. Mixed Functions

- 11.1 An employee employed for two hours or more per day for work other than that on which the employee regularly is employed and for which a higher rate of pay is provided for herein, shall receive such higher rate of pay for the whole day, while so employed. If employed for less than two hours on any day the employee shall receive such higher rate of pay while so employed.
- 11.2 No employee shall suffer any reduction in wages if temporarily employed on work other than that on which the employee regularly is employed and for which a lower rate of pay is provided for herein.

12. Overtime

- 12.1 With the exception of work performed pursuant to clause 10.2 (Part-time Employees) overtime shall mean all time worked before the fixed starting time or after the fixed ceasing time, or in excess of an average 40 hours per week and shall be paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and at the rate of double time thereafter.
- 12.2 Overtime on a Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time and a half with a minimum payment of four hours, for those workers not working as part of their normal rostered shift.
- 12.3 Overtime on a Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time thereafter with a minimum payment of four hours, for those workers not working as part of their normal rostered shift.
- 12.4 Overtime on a public holiday shall be paid for at the rate of double time with a minimum payment of four hours, for those workers not working as part of their normal rostered shift.
- 12.5 The company may require employees to work reasonable overtime to meet the needs of the business.
- 12.6 When overtime is worked it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that employees have a least ten consecutive hours off duty between work on successive days.

An employee (other than a casual employee) who works so much overtime between the termination of ordinary hours on one day and the commencement of ordinary work on the next day that the employee has not had a least ten consecutive hours off duty between those times, shall be released after completion of such overtime until the employee has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

If, on the instructions of the employer, such an employee resumes or continues work without having had such ten consecutive hours off duty, the employee shall be paid at overtime rates until released from duty for such period.

This subclause shall not apply in respect to overtime worked on days when the employee is not rostered to work.

13. Meal and Rest Breaks

- 13.1 Meal Break - All employees working in excess of five hours shall be allowed a 30 minute period for a meal break. The time shall be fixed by the employer but once having been fixed shall not be altered without seven days' notice or by mutual agreement. The meal break will be an unpaid break for day workers and will be a paid break for shift workers.

- 10 -

- 13.2 Rest Break - Employees working six hours will be allowed a ten minute paid rest break at a time set by the employer in addition to a meal break. Employees entitled to a meal break working less than six hours will be allowed a meal break only.
- 13.3 An employee working overtime shall be allowed a paid meal break of 20 minutes after each five hours of overtime worked.
- 13.4 Should overtime continue in excess of five hours a paid meal break of 20 minutes shall be allowed for each subsequent completed five hours worked, the said five hours to be calculated from the time of each recommencement of work.
- 13.5 An employee required to work eight hours or more overtime on a rostered day off or a non-rostered public holiday may be allowed the usual week day meal break and, in that case, the provisions of subclauses 13.3 and 13.4 of this clause do not apply.
- 13.6 Provided that the employer and employees may mutually agree to any variation of this clause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand.
- 13.7 The rest breaks and meal breaks are inclusive of wash up time with no wash up time permitted at the end of each shift.

14. Meal Allowance

- 14.1 An employee who works overtime, without the employee being notified the day prior of the requirement to work overtime, for more than one and a half hours after the fixed ceasing time of their regular rostered shift shall be paid for such day a meal allowance of an amount as set out in item 4 of Table 2 - Other Rates and Allowances of Part B, Monetary Rates. Such payment shall be paid by EFT and be included in the payment of weekly wages, as an after tax payment. This allowance will be indexed with future wage increases.
- 14.2 Should an employee undertake to work overtime nominated by the Company, then fail to work the full period of overtime, they shall forfeit the right to payment for the meal allowance.

15. Holidays

- 15.1 All statutory or gazetted public holidays observed generally throughout the state of New South Wales being New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Eight - hour Day, Boxing Day and an agreed Picnic Day being 30th of August, shall be worked if they form part of an employee's normal working roster.
- 15.2 The statutory or gazetted public holidays of Christmas Day and Good Friday, will be observed as public holidays.
- 15.3 If employees are rostered to work on a public holiday, seven days' notice will be provided if the Company does not require the employee to work. Notwithstanding the giving of such notice, employees rostered to work on a public holiday shall be paid their ordinary rate of pay for that day.

- 15.4 Employees working on public holidays as part of their normal work roster, other than Good Friday and Christmas, shall be paid 200 per cent for hours worked in addition to the ordinary hourly rate with a minimum of four hours, unless the employee's rostered shift is less than six hours. This rate shall substitute for any shift or weekend allowances.
- 15.5 Employees working on Christmas Day or Good Friday shall be paid 300 per cent for hours worked in addition to the ordinary hourly rate with a minimum of four hours, unless the employee's rostered shift is less than six hours. This rate shall substitute for any shift or weekend allowances.
- 15.6 An employee absent without leave on the day before or the day after any holiday shall forfeit payment for such holiday, except where the employer is satisfied by a medical certificate that the employee's absence was caused by illness, provided an employee absent on one day only either before or after a group of holidays shall forfeit wages for only one holiday.
- 15.7 The Picnic Day is not to be considered a closed day for the industry. Full-time employees who are employed as at 30 August may elect to:
- (a) receive one extra day's pay; or
 - (b) have one day added to annual leave;
 - (c) take an alternative day in lieu.
- 15.8 Part-time employees will be paid for the Picnic Day on a pro rata basis.

16. Annual Leave

- 16.1 See Annual Holidays Act 1944.
- 16.2 An employee at the time of commencing annual leave, in accordance with the said Act, shall be entitled to an additional payment in respect of the period of employment to which the said leave is referable of 25 per cent, calculated on the ordinary weekly time rate of pay and shall include any shift allowances but shall not include commissions, bonuses, incentive payments, overtime rates or any other payments prescribed by this Agreement.
- 16.3 The loading prescribed herein shall be paid on termination of employment where the annual leave which has become due to the employee is outstanding at the time of termination.
- 16.4 The provisions of subclause 16.3 of this clause shall not apply where an employee is dismissed for misconduct nor shall it apply to pro rata holiday pay paid on termination of employment.

17. Long Service Leave

- 17.1 See Long Service Leave Act 1955.

18. Sick Leave

- 18.1 An employee who, after not less than three months' continuous service with the employer, is unable to attend for duty during their ordinary working hours by reason of personal illness or incapacity, including incapacity resulting from injury within the Workers' Compensation Act 1987, not due to their own serious and wilful misconduct, shall be entitled to be paid at ordinary time rates of pay for the time of such non-attendances. Provided that once an employee has had three months' continuous service with an employer, they shall be paid for the time of such non-attendance during the first 3 months. Provided however, that they shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which they are entitled to workers' compensation.
- 18.2 The employee shall, prior to the commencement of any absence or as soon as possible, inform the employer of their inability to attend for duty, and, as far as possible, state the nature of injury or illness and the estimated duration of the incapacity.
- 18.3 The employee shall not be entitled to payment unless the employee provides proof, satisfactory to the Company, that the employee was unable on account of such illness to attend for duty on the day or days for which payment under this clause is claimed.
- 18.4 The employee shall not be entitled to sick leave in excess of the following:
 - In the first year 40 hours
 - In the second year and successive years 80 hours

The rights under this clause accumulate from year to year so that any part of a week which has not been allowed in any year, may, subject to the conditions prescribed by this clause, be claimed by the employee and shall be allowed by the employer in a subsequent year of employment.
- 18.5 An employee who is absent without leave on a working day, before or after any period during which the employee is not rostered to work, shall be liable to forfeit wages for the working day except where the employee produces medical evidence that is satisfactory to the employer, to the extent that his/her absence was caused through personal illness or injury.
- 18.6 No employee shall be retired on the grounds of ill health until their accumulated sick leave credits have been exhausted or unless the cash value of the accumulated sick leave credit has been paid to the employee on termination of employment.
- 18.7 Entitlements within this clause do not extend to an employee when they are not rostered to work.
- 18.8 In the case of an employee who claims to be paid sick leave, in accordance with this clause, for an absence of one day only, such employee if in the year he/she has already been allowed paid sick leave on more than one occasion for one day only, shall not be entitled to payment for the day claimed unless he/she produces to the employer a certificate of a registered medical practitioner that in his/her opinion the employee was unable to attend for duty on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident. Nothing in this sub-clause shall limit the employer's right under sub-clause 18.3 of this clause.

- 18.9 All other sick leave shall be subject to proof as provided in subclause 18.3 of this clause.
- 18.10 All employees shall when returning to work after an absence, report to their respective Supervisor and where necessary inform the Supervisor of the reason for the absence.
- 18.11 Provided that where a Company has reasonable proof to suspect that an employee has abused their entitlements under this subclause the Company and the Union shall investigate and discuss the matter.

19. Bereavement Leave

- 19.1 An employee on the death of a wife, husband, father, mother, brother, sister, child, stepchild, mother-in-law, father-in-law, foster parent, grandparent or grandchild will be entitled on notice to leave including the day of the funeral of such relation, and such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in two ordinary days work. In the case of attendance at a funeral of such relation outside Australia, such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in a normal week. Proof of such death shall be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the Company if so requested, together with proof of attendance in the case of a funeral outside Australia.
- 19.2 Where the death of a relative named herein occurs outside Australia and the employee does not attend the funeral, the employee shall be entitled to one day only, unless the employee can demonstrate to the Company that additional time up to a period of three days was justified.
- 19.3 Provided that this clause shall have no operation while the period of entitlement to leave under it coincides with any other period of entitlement to leave.
- 19.4 For the purpose of this clause, the words "wife" and "husband" shall not include a wife or husband from whom the employee is legally separated but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto wife or husband.
- 19.5 Entitlements under this clause do not extend to an employee on their rostered day off.

20. Workers' Compensation

- 20.1 See Workers' Compensation Act 1987

21. Parental Leave

- 21.1 See Parental Leave Provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1996.

22. Jury Service

- 22.1 An employee shall be allowed leave of absence during any period when required to attend for jury service. During such leave of absence, an employee shall be paid the difference between the jury service fees received and the employee's ordinary rate of pay as if working.
- 22.2 An employee shall be required to produce to the Company proof of any jury service fees received, proof of their requirement to attend for jury service and proof of attendance on jury service and shall give the Company notice of such requirements as soon as practicable after receiving notification requiring their attendance for jury service.
- 22.3 Entitlements under this clause do not apply to an employee on a day on which they are not rostered to work.

23. Fares and Travelling Time

- 23.1 Employees temporarily transferred shall be reimbursed any extra fares or expenses involved together with payment for all extra time spent travelling.

24. Terms of Engagement

- 24.1 Employment shall be on a weekly basis except casuals who shall be on an hourly basis.
- 24.2 Employment of full-time, part-time and casual employees during the first three months of service shall be probationary and from day to day at the pro-rata weekly rate, terminable by a day's notice on either side but the Company shall indicate clearly to an employee at the time of engagement whether the employee is being engaged as a casual employee, a full-time or a part-time employee.
- 24.3 Subject to subclause 24.5 employment after the first three months shall be terminable upon the giving of one weeks notice or payment in lieu thereof.
- 24.4 Formal Counselling Procedure - Employees other than probationary employees will be subject to a formal counselling procedure before termination can take place.

The procedure being:

- (a) First Counselling - explaining reasons with a fellow employee as a witness present if so requested by the employee.
- (b) Second Counselling - explaining reasons with a fellow employee as a witness present if so requested by the employee.
- (c) Dismissal - explaining reasons with a fellow employee as a witness present if so requested by the employee.
- (d) Written details of all meetings.

- 24.5 In the case of misconduct justifying instant dismissal an employee may be instantly dismissed.

25. Superannuation

- 25.1 See the Storemen and Packers - Grocery and Variety Warehouse (State) Superannuation Award, published 22 February 1991 (261 I.G. 426).

26. First-Aid

- 26.1 See Occupational Health and Safety Act 1983.
- 26.2 A qualified first-aid attendant who is appointed to carry out the duties of a qualified first aid attendant shall be paid per week an amount as set in Item 5 of Table 2 - Other Rates and Allowances, of Part B, Monetary Rates, in addition to the appropriate rate. This allowance will be indexed with future wage increases.
- 26.3 When a relief qualified first aid attendant is required to be appointed under the Act they shall be paid the said additional allowance while engaged on such relief on a pro rata basis.

27.- Dirty Work

- 27.1 An employee engaged in the physical handling, sorting and attempted recovery of broken and damaged stock within the recognised central damaged stock area shall be paid per hour for each hour so employed a dirty work allowance of an amount as set out in Item 6 of Table 2 - Other Rates and Allowances, of Part B, Monetary Rates.
- 27.2 This special rate is a flat payment and shall not be taken into account when calculating any other payments to which the employee may be entitled.
- 27.3 This special rate will be indexed with future wage increases.

28. Attendance at Repatriation Centres

- 28.1 Employees being ex-service personnel, shall be allowed as time worked, lost time incurred while attending repatriation centres for medical examination and/or treatment; provided that:
- (a) such lost time does not exceed four hours on each occasion;
 - (b) payment shall be limited to the difference between ordinary wage rates for time lost and any payment received from the Repatriation Department as a result of each such visit;
 - (c) the employee produces satisfactory evidence to the Company that the employee is so required to and subsequently does attend a repatriation centre.
- 28.2 Entitlements under this clause do not extend to an employee when they are not rostered to work.

29. General Conditions

- 29.1 Each employee on the termination of engagement, shall on request, be given a statement, in writing, stating the position held by the employee and length of service.
- 29.2 Employees shall be provided with reasonable dining accommodation, locker change rooms, adequate washing and toilet facilities and a plentiful supply of hot water and refrigerated water for drinking.
- 29.3 Adequate waterproof clothing shall be supplied to all employees working in the rain.

30. Settlement of Disputes

- 30.1 Any dispute arising out of employment shall be referred by the employee representative on behalf of storeworkers, to the Companies' Representatives appointed for this purpose.
- 30.2 All efforts shall be made by the Company and the employee representative, on behalf of storeworkers to settle the matter.
- 30.3 During the discussions, the status quo shall remain and work shall proceed normally. "Status quo" shall mean the situation existing immediately prior to the dispute or the matter giving rise to the dispute.
- 30.4 At any time either party shall have the right to notify the dispute to the Industrial Registrar.

31. No Extra Claims

- 31.1 It is a term of this Agreement that both parties undertake for the duration of the Agreement not to pursue any extra claims unless in accordance with the State Wage Case. Both parties recognise that the wages as expressed incorporate payments due under the Minimum Rates Principle.

32. Flexibility

- 32.1 The Company may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training.
- 32.2 Employees shall take all reasonable steps to achieve quality, accuracy and completion of any job or task assigned to the employee.
- 32.3 Employees shall not impose any restrictions or limitations on a reasonable review of work methods. All reviews carried out by the employer will take into account the potential impact on occupational health and safety.
