The Employees and the Union shall not pursue any extra claims, either Award or over Award for the life of the Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, there shall be no industrial action for the purpose of supporting or advancing claims against the company until the Agreement's nominal expiry date has passed. Where any disagreement arises, the parties shall follow the Dispute Settlement Procedure contained in this Agreement.

9. NOT TO BE USED AS A PRECEDENT

This Agreement shall not be used in any manner whatsoever to obtain similar arrangements or benefits in any other State, Territory, Division, Plant or Enterprise.

10. CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- a) It is a term and condition of employment and of the obligations and rights occurring under this Agreement, that an employee:
 - i) properly use and maintain all appropriate protective clothing and tools and equipment provided by the Company for specified circumstances; and
 - ii) use any technology and perform any duties which are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training; and
 - iii) understand that termination of employment will be based on job requirements and skills and that the principle of "last on - first off" will not apply. It is the needs and requirements of the Company, together with the efforts, skills and abilities of the employee which will be the determining factors regarding the

- iii) understand that termination of employment will be based on job requirements and skills and that the principle of "last on - first off" will not apply. It is the needs and requirements of the Company, together with the efforts, skills and abilities of the employee which will be the determining factors regarding the retrenchment of employees. However, where efforts, skills and abilities are equal then seniority shall take precedence; and
 - iv) maintain commitment to, and comply with the Company's (JGP) Employment Guidelines, policies, procedures and directions (consistent with the objectives of the Agreement) with respect to, safety, quality, site cleanliness and waste management; and
 - v) provide and maintain an adequate kit of tools in accordance with Parent Award requirements; and
 - vi) be committed to the objectives in Clause 4 of this Agreement.
- b) All new employees (other than casuals) will be engaged on the basis of a 3 month probationary period, which shall count as service. The Company reserves the right to terminate a probationary employee at any time during this 3 month period subject to a week's notice or payment in lieu thereof.
- c) The Company's right to employ persons on a specified task and / or specified period basis is acknowledged.
- d) New conditions of employment may be amended or varied as applicable by agreement with Company Management and the employees, through the Consultative Committee.
- e) Application for Employment
- i) Applicants initially complete Employment Application Form EF5:1.1.
 - ii) Applicants considered suitable are interviewed.
 - iii) Successful applicants will undergo the Company's Induction Programme.
- f) Any licensed tradesperson employed by the company who is not in a salaried position shall be entitled to work as a tradesperson, which shall include Forepersons and Leading Hands.
- Whilst it is not intended that Forepersons will work "on the tools" as the normal, there may be time such as the start up and shut down phase of a project when it may be required and all other times on a occasional or temporary nature:
- g) Employee Benefits
In line with The Company's preparedness to change conditions of employment, The Company's intention is to examine alternatives to better meet the needs of its employees. The parties agree to participate in the process of examining the alternatives.
- h) Apprentices
Conditions of employment for apprentices by The Company will be as per the provisions of the relevant regulatory authority.

11. DISPUTE SETTLEMENT PROCEDURE

The parties agree that one of the fundamental objectives of this Agreement is to eliminate lost time in the event of a dispute. Further that it is in the best interests of both parties to achieve prompt resolution of disputes.

The most effective procedure to achieve this, is for the responsibility for resolution to remain as close to the source as is possible, it is with this uppermost in mind that the parties agree to strictly adhere to the dispute settlement procedure as follows:

- a) The employee/s or accredited employees representative wishing to raise any matter affecting the employee/s shall:
 - i) initially raise the matter with the employee/s immediate supervisor / foreperson. If agreement is not reached at this level, the employee/s or representatives shall then;
 - ii) raise the matter with the Company Manager or his representative. If agreement is not reached at this level and an employee representative has been involved, the employee representative will then;
 - iii) be provided with telephone facilities to speak to an official of the Union and request representation at a further conference to be held at a date and time mutually acceptable.
- b) Should negotiations as prescribed in (a) above fail, the matter (where appropriate) shall be referred to the National Electrical Contractors Association and the State Secretary of the Union or his/her nominee within five working days, at which level a conference of the parties shall be convened without delay.
- c) In the absence of agreement, either party may refer the matter to the New South Wales Industrial Relations Commission for resolution.
- d) Whilst the above procedure is being effected, work shall continue normally.
- e) All recommendations, orders and/or directions of the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales shall be strictly observed by all parties subject to the industrial rights of the parties.

12. CONSULTATIVE MECHANISM

The parties agree that a precondition for the effective operation of the Agreement is the establishment of consultative mechanisms with the Company. To this end, a Consultative Committee, comprising of Company appointed representatives and employee elected representatives shall be established and maintained. The purpose of the Consultative Committee shall be to consult, develop, recommend and assist to implement strategies and measures designed to achieve the objectives outlined under Clause 4 of this Agreement.

Other Attendees

- a) The JGP 'CC' has the authority by majority vote to call upon other parties to participate in their meetings by invitation and those invited shall be classified as consultants / advisers and have no voting rights.

Likely Consultants / Advisers are:

- * Trade Union Organisers / Delegate
- * Equal Opportunity Management Representative / Delegate
- * Training Establishments
 - TAFE
 - Training Provider
 - Industry Training Councils
 - Specialised Training Providers
- * Government Instrumentalities

13. HOURS OF WORK

The parties agree that the current working arrangements for hours of work provisions (including, but not limited to, the daily maximum ordinary hours, work cycles and the taking of meal breaks and rest periods) may be altered during the life of this Agreement following consultation and agreement between the Company and the majority of affected site personnel so as to provide greater flexibility and to meet project and/or shift work or operation requirements. The criteria that will be used in assessing the desirability of proposed changes to hours of work will include the impact on efficiency, operational and project requirements, productivity, quality and quality of life.

The parameters for ordinary hours for the purpose of this Agreement shall be an average of 38 hours per week and shall be between 6.00am and 6.00pm on any or all of the days Monday to Friday. The ordinary hours of work shall be worked continuously except for meal breaks. Different methods of implementation of the hours of work may be applied to various groups or sections of employees by agreement.

Staggered starting and finishing times may be introduced by agreement with employees at the site to help overcome any problems or potential delays. As a consequence, breaks taken during the course of the day shall also be staggered.

An employee's weekly ordinary hours of work can consist of both day work and shift work, provide that the appropriate shift allowance is paid for any shift work in accordance with sub-clause 22.6 of the Parent Award.

Shift Work

The above flexible hours of work provisions will also apply to shift work as defined by the Parent Award.

Rostered Days Off (RDO's)

The parties agree to increased flexibility with regard to the taking of RDO's. RDO's may be rescheduled or staggered over the work cycle rather than on industry RDO days.

By agreement between the Company and an employee, RDO's may be banked to a maximum of five (5). Records of each employee's RDO status will be kept by the Company and made available to the employee upon request.

Starting

Employees shall be at the nearest gang box or site office dressed and equipped and ready to commence work at the work start time. Wash up time shall occur after the finish time.

14. WAGES

Wage rates for employees shall be as prescribed in Schedule A. These wage rates are effective from the first full pay period to commence on or after the dates specified in Schedule A.

These wage increases will be in lieu of any other increases granted by the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales during the term of this Agreement except that should the Parent Award's all purpose hourly wage rates exceed the rates under this Agreement, employees shall be paid at the higher hourly rate.

Expense related allowances, with the exception of the excess fares allowance, will be paid in accordance with the Parent Award and varied as the Parent Award is varied.

15. PRODUCTIVITY ALLOWANCE

A productivity allowance per hour worked will be paid to employees engaged upon construction work upon commencement of this Agreement. This allowance will not be subject to penalty addition and shall be in lieu of all or any Parent Award disability allowances, with the exception of the multi-storey allowance.

The productivity allowance shall be as prescribed in Schedule A.

As an apprentice progresses from one year of his/her apprenticeship to the next, entitlement to the productivity allowance at the rate prescribed for that next year is dependent upon the apprentice having successfully passed all his / her TAFE studies to date. Failure to do so means the apprentice does not become entitled to the higher productivity allowance. If it becomes apparent to the employer that the apprentice is having difficulties in his/her TAFE studies, the employer shall do all that is reasonable to assist the apprentice to successfully complete his/her studies.

Site/project allowances will be paid in addition to the productivity allowance where such an addition is either:

- a) Awarded by the Industrial Relations Commission; or
- b) Required by contract condition specified at the time of the tender. It is incumbent upon the Company to enquire of the head contractor/client at the time of the tender whether a site/project allowance is contractually required to be paid and in particular whether it is required to be paid in accordance with the Construction Industry Site Allowance Matrix.

16. NO DISADVANTAGE

No employee shall suffer an overall reduction in pay as a result of the making of this Agreement. The components used to determine if any financial disadvantage has occurred are wage rates, productivity allowance and excess fares and travel time only. Site allowance, superannuation, redundancy and top-up / 24 hour employee insurance contributions will not form part of an employee pay for this purpose. Further, this assessment will be based on an ordinary 38 hour working week and no overtime shall be taken into account.

17. SUPERANNUATION

The Company will pay superannuation contributions into the NESS No.1 Superannuation Scheme (or C+BUS where appropriate) for each employee. It is hereby agreed that this superannuation fund will be the sole fund utilised under this agreement. The contribution rate shall be as required by the Superannuation Guarantee Legislation, provided that the weekly minimum contribution for all employees, except apprentices and trainees, will be:

- a) Upon commencement of the Agreement: $40 per week worked
- b) From 1 February 1998: $50 per week worked
- c) From 30 September 1998: $60 per week worked.

All superannuation contributions will be paid monthly as required by the Trust Deed.

18. REDUNDANCY

Redundancy will be paid strictly according to the provisions of the Electrical Contracting Industry Redundancy and Technological Change (State) Award with the exception that this award shall apply notwithstanding that employment is terminated by the Company due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

Upon commencement of this Agreement, the Company will make contributions to MERT on behalf of employees (other than apprentices and trainees) engaged upon construction work at the rate of $41.60 per week worked and increasing to $45 per week worked from 1 March, 1998.

19. TOP-UP / 24 HOUR INCOME ACCIDENT PROTECTION INSURANCE

It is a term of the Agreement the Company will pay Top-Up / 24 Hour Employee Insurance under the WageCover or other agreed scheme from the date of commencement of the Agreement.

20. CLOTHING

After completion of Probationary Period, employees will be supplied with:

- a) Three sets of shorts or trousers, or any combination of clothing as agreed between the employees and the Company which shall be replaced on a fair wear and tear basis;
- b) A jacket will be provided and replaced on a fair wear and tear basis.

21. TRANSFER OF LABOUR

If a halt to productive work occurs which is not the fault or the responsibility of the Company, the parties agree that employees can be relocated to other unaffected areas to continue productive work or to other sites if work is available. Provided that employees will continue to be paid in accordance with this Agreement during such a temporary transfer.

22. SKILL DEVELOPMENT

The Company acknowledges the changing pace of technology in the electrical contracting industry and the need for employees to understand those changes and have the necessary skill requirements to keep the Company at the forefront of the industry.

The parties to this Agreement recognise that in order to increase the efficiency, productivity and competitiveness of the Company, a commitment to training and skill development is required, Accordingly, the parties commit themselves to:

- a) Developing a more highly skilled and flexible workforce.
- b) Providing employees with career opportunities through appropriate training to acquire the additional skills as required by the Company.

Taking into account:

- ✿ The current and future skill needs of the Company
- ✿ The size, structure and nature of the Company.
- ✿ The need to develop vocational skills relevant to the Company and the Electrical Contracting Industry.

23. WET WEATHER PROCEDURE

In the event of wet weather, work in the open will continue until the particular work in hand can no longer be done safely and efficiently.

Whilst it is raining, employees will be required to:

- ✿ Continue to work under cover or relocate to alternative work under cover, on site.
- ✿ Obtain materials and services for employees working under cover where there is only minimal exposure to inclement weather.
- ✿ When required, perform emergency and safety work. In addition, work on unexpected breakdowns which can be corrected in limited time duration.

Should a portion of the project be affected by wet weather, all other employees not so affected shall continue working in accordance with award conditions, regardless that some employees may be entitled to cease work due to wet weather.

If a halt to productive work occurs due to inclement weather, the parties agree that employees may be relocated to other unaffected sites.

Where the above steps are not possible, affected employees may be required to attend tool box meetings, work planning sessions or skills development activities, all of which will count as productive time for payment purposes.

24. PAYMENT OF WAGES

Wages will be paid weekly by electronic funds transfer (EFT). The Company shall comply with all provisions to the keeping of time and wage records and the production of payslips in accordance with the Industrial Relations Act 1996.

25. FARES AND TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES

Employees will be paid an excess fares allowance as prescribed by Schedule A where they have an entitlement to this allowance under the Parent Award.

Where an employee has an entitlement to the average excess travelling time payment pursuant to subclause 4.4.2 of the Parent Award, the payment will be as prescribed by Schedule A.

Both allowances are fixed for the life of the Agreement.

26. PICNIC DAY

In accordance with picnic day provisions, the Company will require from an employee proof of picnic day attendance, ie ETU ticket purchase, before payment will be made for the day. A ticket purchased in relation to an alternative union picnic day is not sufficient for the purpose of payment.

27. DISTANT / AWAY WORK

Where an employee genuinely volunteers to be transferred to a distant site, they shall not be entitled to living away allowance or travel expenses.

Where an employee is specifically requested to transfer to a distant site, they shall be entitled to living away allowances.

All arrangements regarding distant sites shall be formalised in writing and witnessed by another employee. The selection of employees for away work shall be solely at the discretion of the Company.

28. QUALITY ASSURANCE

The parties endorse the underlying principles of the Company's quality management system, which seeks to ensure that its services are provided in a manner which best conforms to the requirements of the contract with its customer. This requires the Company to establish and maintain, implement, train and continuously improve its procedures and processes, and the employees to follow the procedures, document their compliance and participate in the improvement process. In particular, this will require employees to regularly and reliably fill out documentation and checklists to signify that work has been carried out in accordance with the customer's specific requirements. Where necessary, training will be provided in these activities.

29. SUPPLEMENTARY LABOUR

The parties agree that when necessary to meet short term peak work requirements additional labour resources are able to be sourced from Labour Hire Companies, ensuring that the relevant rates are paid as per Schedule A.

30. GROUP TRAINING COMPANIES

The Company when hiring apprentices or trainees from a Group Training Company shall ensure that the relevant rates are paid as per Schedule A.

- ✱ The Group Training Company shall be notified if special allowances and/or a site/project allowance is payable.

31. TOOLS

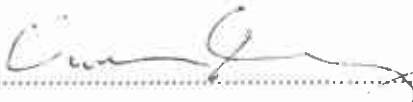

The parties agree that a necessary precondition for a productive and efficient workforce is to ensure that employees maintain an adequate kit of tools.

A priority for the Consultative Committee is to develop an agreed tool list of employees, consistent with the nature of work undertaken by the company.

32. RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT

Discussions will take place not later than 6 weeks prior to the expiry of this Agreement to renegotiate a future agreement.
